Arabescato Bianco is an agglomerate marble from a white marble quarry in the north of Italy. The term "agglomerate" means that it is comprised of small pieces of stone, fused together using resin. Therefore, it possesses similar characteristics to marble. It is possible to have grey, black, and even gold or oxidized spots in this product. In production, irregular pieces of white marble are combined with white resin and placed into a large rectangle tank to be cured into a block. The block is later cut into 3/4" thick slabs. Arabescato Bianco slabs can be used for countertops, showers, tub decks, and steam showers. With matching 24 x 24 tile, this agglomerate marble brings a contemporary look to bathrooms and family living areas alike. As a natural stone product it is recommended that it be sealed to extend its longevity.
