Arizona Tile: Fresh New Surfaces for 2020

At the start of a new year, Arizona Tile continues to stock the most distinctive materials in the design industry. Supported by ever-developing technology and innovation, strategically sourced materials have kept Arizona Tile at the forefront of design trends. Many materials can now be created to look like less durable counterparts or in unique shapes and tile formats. While one-of-a-kind, attractive, and resilient materials have always been highly desirable for design renovation and new builds, Arizona Tile continues to be a trailblazer; stocking exclusive and awe-inspiring surfaces. Included are some of the top trends in tile, stone, and quartz, set for release in 2020.

New Tile Series

Completa Series- Stone Tile

The Completa Series is a collection of Natural Stone Mosaics & Mesh Mounts that are offered in six color collections, each with more than five mesh variations. Each variation is artistically crafted, with exclusive materials strategically arranged to display the material in unique and breathtaking patterns.

The tiles within each sheet of marble are intentionally designed so the organic veining and details

Vetri Series- Porcelain

Vetri is a rectified glazed porcelain, created to give the illusion of a polished, glass surface. The edges of each tile are tinted a darker color, adding dimension and depth. This detail combined with the series' polished surface makes the pieces look like glass. Unlike glass however, Vetri maintains all of the durable characteristics of porcelain and can be used in installations not suitable for glass. Arizona Tile carries Vetri in five colors and three sizes. It also has an available trim.

Pave Series- Porcelain

Pave is an Italian-made, Rectified Color Body Porcelain. It is offered in five colors and two sizes, each size versatile enough to be used in a variety of installations. As a porcelain product, it is suitable for residential and commercial applications alike, and requires minimal maintenance. It is offered in a  $12 \times 24$  rectangular tile, as well as a  $2 \times 2$  mosaic, making it even more adaptable to various styles. The available colors are crisp and modern, adding an understated elegance to any design.

New Stone

Arabescato Bianco- Agglomerate Marble

Arabescato Bianco is a white Agglomerate Marble. It is comprised of small pieces of white marble set amongst a white resin background. Pieces of marble are tumbled to smooth their edges and later added to resin. Its creamy white color may have areas of gold or oxidation, adding to its nostalgic character and retro flair. Arizona Tile carries Arabescato Bianco in 2cm slabs as well as 24 x 24 inch tiles.

Artemis- Quartzite

Artemis is a cool grey quartzite quarried from a bedrock quarry in Brazil. Its light background color sets a magnificent backdrop for a series of distinctive dark grey veining. Occasional areas of blue add to the slabs uniqueness, making Artemis a breathtaking display of natural art. Arizona Tile carries Artemis in 2 and 3cm stone slabs.

Fantasy Ocean- Quartzite

Fantasy Ocean is a quartzite from India with a blue-grey tone. Its light background color provides a stark contrast to its varying black veins, dispersed throughout. Due to its hardness, it is well suited for kitchen countertop use. Arizona Tile carries Fantasy Ocean in 2 and 3cm stone slabs and is stocked in polished and satin finishes.

Lavezzi- Quartzite

Lavezzi is a creamy white quartzite with striking grey and gold veining throughout. This detail gives the material a luxurious appeal, adding sophistication to any installation. While it resembles many of the Italian Calacatta marbles in appearance, it is much harder and more durable. Arizona Tile carries Lavezzi in 2 and 3cm stone slabs.

New Quartz

Linea- Quartz

Linea is a pure white quartz with an occasional greige pattern. Its subtle detailing gives the material a clean, yet sophisticated appeal, lending to traditional and contemporary installations alike. Though it gives the appearance of natural marble, as a quartz material, it is far more durable. Arizona Tile carries Linea in 2 and 3 cm slabs.

Arco- Quartz

Arco is a white quartz with a webbed grey pattern and tiny grey speckles strewn throughout. Its variation in small details give the material a realistic look of natural stone, mimicking the look of marble. Arizona Tile carries Arco in 2 and 3cm slabs in both honed and polished finishes.

Elegance Ash- Quartz

Elegance Ash is a warm grey quartz with a static pattern of small, clear speckles throughout. This muted detail gives the material subtle dimension, adding character to its otherwise plain background. Arizona Tile carries Elegance Ash in 2 and 3cm slabs.

Opaline Satin- Quartz

Opaline Satin is a white quartz with a satin finish. Its finish gives the material a muted look, while its color gives it the versatility to be used in a variety of installations. Arizona Tile carries Opaline Satin in 2 and 3cm slabs. It is also available in a polished finish.

About Arizona Tile

Founded in 1977 in San Diego, California, Arizona Tile has grown into a nationally recognized commercial and residential distributor with twenty seven locations in eight Western states. Arizona Tile is one of the largest independently-owned importers of stone in the United States, offering more than 300 varieties of granite, marble, quartzite, limestone and travertine, over 65 colors of Della Terra® Quartz, plus unique glass mosaics, porcelain tile and other design creations. Founded by John Huarte, former NFL player and Heisman Trophy winner, the company is still family-owned after more than 40 years.
