

Respirable Crystalline Silica Dust

DANGER

Are You In Compliance?

Wherever slab products are fabricated and processed, a silica dust control program shall be in place .

Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) and Cal-OSHA

Need Help?

The Natural Stone Institute has developed several training videos, guidebooks, and other training resources to assist employers in the stone countertop industry in protecting their workers from exposure to respirable crystalline silica.

Scan the QR Code to be directed to Arizona Tile's Safety Resource Page.

There you will find Safety Data Sheets and links to
NSI , OSHA and Cal OSHA 's Respirable Crystalline Silica Standards & Resources

